THE 1963 BRUINS

JOHN WALKER

RETURNING VETERANS—24 returning lettermen from 1962 and one from '61, including 6 ends, 5 tackles, 5 guards, 2 centers, 2 quarterbacks, 4 halfbacks and 1 fullback. Of these, nine are two-year lettermen. There are few major position changes, main ones being switch of right Halfback Bill Hauck to left end and left End Al Geverink to the right, or flanker, back. Eighteen of the 24 returnees from last season started games in '62, topped by right End Mel Profit's nine starts in 10 games. Left End Al Geverink opened in seven contests and Quarterback Larry Zeno and Fullback Warren Jackson in five. Left Guards Dick Peterson, John LoCurto and Johnny Walker, plus Quarterback Carl Jones, started in three. Ten others started in one game: left Ends Gale Hickman and Gary Callies, left Tackles Kent Francisco and Jack Reed, left Guard Chuck Davis, Center Prentice O'Leary, right Ends Dave Gibbs and Don Francis, left Half Chuck Peterson and right half Dan Ghormley. Left Half Mike Haffner, the West's top ground-gainer in 1961, started in one contest that season. Out last season with a knee injury, the wild-running junior from Baldwin Park, gained 703 yards rushing in '61 for a 6.27-yard average and eight touchdowns and completed 14 passes for 231 yards and one more score. For those exploits, he won AP All-America honorable mention and second team All-Coast and All-AAWU honors. The king-sized Profit may be the West's top wing performer this fall after standing out as a two-way player last year. The six-foot-five senior from Los Gatos caught 12 passes for 229 yards last fall and showed great strength and toughness on defense, for which he gained All-American honorable mention. Other top returnees include Jackson, a big, promising bull-like fullback with speed; Walker, a quick, perceptive linebacker who hits with authority; and Quarterbacks Carl Jones, who started the last three 1962 games, and Larry Zeno, who opened in five out of the first seven.

WARREN JACKSON

LOSSES—15 lettermen, including 3 tackles, 3 guards, 3 centers, 1 quarterback, 3 halfbacks and 2 fullbacks. Of these, 11 were three-year lettermen. Greatest loss is talented Kermit Alexander, the outstanding two-way All-American halfback, and Center Andy Von Sonn, All-AAWU first team choice, who won honorable mention in the national selections. Others are left Half Rob Smith and Fullback Mitch Dimkich, both highly-respected season-end award winners, along with Guards

Tony Fiorentino and Dave Stout and Tackle Joe Bauwens.

RUSS BANDUCCI

PROMISING SOPHOMORES — The number is limited, as it usually is at UCLA. Right half, or flanker, Kurt Altenberg, up from the Redshirts, and three 1962 freshmen, right Guard Russ Banducci, Fullback Jim Colletto and Fullback Paul Horgan, formerly a left half, appeared to best advantage in Spring Practice. All are good-sized youngsters and definite prospects for the future, particularly Banducci, who could make a run at the first string spot this fall.

OFFENSE—The new Bruin offense is much more pass-oriented, and utilization of the forward pass as a major ball-moving threat is expected. This new UCLA grid philosophy is exemplified by the Split-End-Flanker-T formation and is timed to utilize the fine two-way talents of 1962 Quarterbacks Carl Jones and Larry Zeno, plus the passing talents of Santa Monica City College Transfer Steve Sindell, who set three national JC aerial records last fall.

CARL JONES

STEVE SINDELL

PASSING—The Bruin passing attack should be greatly improved and a much more used weapon in 1963. Both Jones and Zeno, who started eight games between them, completed better than 40 per cent of their tosses last fall and had the benefit of a tough year's experience. In addition, the threat of their running ability will help the air game. Then, Sindell's 1962 JC efforts, when he completed 152 passes out of 268 attempts for 2051 yards, gave a good indication of things to come. On the receiving end, Profit, who caught 12 passes for 229 yards, Callies, who caught nine for 96, and several other promising receivers should do a good job for the Bruins. Geverink, who was switched from left end to the flanker spot, should improve greatly on his two receptions of last fall.

RUNNING—UCLA, for years one of the strongest running teams in the nation, will find this facet of the Bill Barnes T-formation taking only equal billing in the new Bruin offensive philosophy. But in the deep running positions (left half and fullback), UCLA has two of the best runners on the Coast in Mike Haffner and Warren Jackson. Haffner, who became the greatest sophomore runner in Bruin history by his 1961 exploits, should prove of great value at left half. Jackson, a 200-pounder with both speed and heft, is a fine complementary back with blocking ability as well as ball-carrying talent. Behind them, however, there is considerable inexperience that must be overcome. Don't, however, overlook the excellent running of both Jones and Zeno, the latter the third best among the Bruins last fall with 252 yards in 72 carries for a 3.5 average.

KENT FRANCISCO

FROM TACKLE TO TACKLE — The Bruins have some quickness, but not great size; and only three seniors played more than 50 minutes last fall. The seniors available for duty include two-year center Letterman Steve Truesdell, who played 50 minutes in '62; left Guards Johnny Walker and John LoCurto, who played 210½ and 189 respectively; and right Guard Walt Dathe, who accumulated 205 minutes. There is pretty good size in lettermen left Tackles John Pentecost (230), Jack Reed (218) and Don Francis (205) and in right Tackles Kent Francisco (225) and Randy Schwartz (230). At center, one-time letterman Prentice O'Leary, weighing only 190, moved ahead of Truesdell in Spring practice while Sophomore Russ Banducci, a promising 215-pound star from the 1962 frosh team, moved into contention at right guard. Come-through performances from tackle to tackle are essential to Bruin success this fall.

MEL PROFIT

THE ENDS—Where UCLA lacked depth and experience here a year ago, there is much more of both for '63. At left end, one-year Letterman Gary Callies, a fine glue-fingered route-runner, tops the list that includes Senior Bill Hauck, a former halfback, and Junior Gale Hickman. But Bob Dietrich, up from the Redshirts, could make them all hustle. At the right side, of course, is big Mel Profit, a great six-foot-five "target" in any league. He is backed up by Seniors Jim Stanley and Dave Gibbs, the former a defensive ace and the latter a good offensive performer. Then, while the Bruin right halfbacks are generally considered in the backfield, they will be "third ends" and prime targets from the flanker position. Geverink, the former left end, one-time Letterman Dan Ghormley and promising Bob Richardson and Kurt Altenberg may move close to the top.

LARRY ZENO

THE OUTLOOK — Definitely better in many ways, even though the T-formation has been changed radically to add greater emphasis to the aerial game. Facing king-sized teams like Penn State, Notre Dame, Illinois and Syracuse, Coach Bill Barnes says, "It's obvious no team can run through big teams like these week-after-week; consequently, we're going to diversify our attack. This means we'll have to strike fast through the air. Even though this is a very young team, with only nine seniors on the first three teams, we should have good speed and pass-catching ability—and we hope the boys rapidly develop the composure needed to stand up under the heavy firing."

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS TEAM UP FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT YEAR

The important fact about today's highly-skilled college football player is simply that he is a student first, an athlete second. This is a concept that is the basis of college and university athletic programs of our American educational system.

From this concept UCLA has developed a program uniting the thrill of sports with the advancement of education.

During 1963 the Bruin Department of Athletics continues this unity of purposes by awarding five $1000 Graduate Fellowships from proceeds of five home football games. The five departments of the University to be selected by the Graduate Division will be individually honored at the Bruins' Los Angeles Coliseum games this fall with Pittsburgh, Syracuse, Illinois, California and Washington.

To a selectee of each department will go a $1000 Fellowship award. Last season, The Classics, Italian, Latin American Studies, Library Service and Near Eastern Center Departments were so honored.

This unique tie between academics and athletics is indicative of all that is good in the University of California concept.

Football fans can be proud that they are contributing to UCLA students and their academic progress each time a ticket is purchased for a Bruin football game.

FIFTH SEASON AT HELM

WILLIAM F. "BILL" BARNES—(Tennessee '41)
Head UCLA Football Coach

BILL BARNES

THIS IS William Fletcher "Bill" Barnes' fifth season as the UCLA head football coach. His four-year Bruin record includes 23 victories, 16 losses and two ties for a winning .600 percentage against the toughest of major opposition.

He's turned out three winning teams (5-4-1 in 1959, 7-2-1 in 1960 and 7-4-0 in 1961), including two AAWU championship clubs. His '59 Bruins tied with Washington and USC, all with 3-1 records, for the conference crown and his '61 team was undisputed league titlists with a 3-1 mark and a Rose Bowl bid.

Barnes' only losing season came last year when the Bruins posted a 4-6 record in their first season as a T-formation team. Previously, he had coached and played the Single Wing formation.

Actually, this is Barnes' 14th year at UCLA, eight as a top assistant and coach under the late Red Sanders (1950-57), one as first the senior aide and then acting coach in 1958 when headman George Dickerson became ill in mid-season, and now he's in his fifth season as the Bruin boss. He was officially signed in December, 1958, as UCLA's ninth head football coach in history.

In all, Barnes is now in his 19th year of coaching. He came to UCLA after four years (1946-49) as end coach and scout at University of Arkansas. He began his career as a freshman assistant at University of Tennessee, his alma mater, for one year (1940).

Barnes also has served with distinction in major post-season games. He was a staff member (1959) and then head coach (1960) of the West team in the annual East-West Shrine classic in San Francisco. He also was the head coach of the West teams in the 1962 and '63 Hula Bowl games in Honolulu.

Bill was a versatile gridder at Tennessee under the late and great Gen. Bob Neyland, having played both in the line and backfield. As a senior in 1939, he was an end. He and the Vols, by the way, played in the 1939 Orange Bowl and 1940 Rose Bowl.

Although born in Cape Girardeau, Mo., on Oct. 20, 1917, he lived most of his life in Tennessee and prepped at Memphis Central High where he won All-Southern prep honors in 1935. He graduated from Tennessee in 1941 with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

He served in the Army during World War II (1942-46) and was discharged with the rank of Major. While in the service he was awarded the Legion of Merit, Silver Star and Bronze Star. After leaving the Army, Barnes was signed by Arkansas. Coaching there was very pleasurable to Bill because that's where he met his charming wife, the former Frances Tow.

THE STAFF

HERBERT B. "DEKE" BRACKETT—(Tennessee '34)
Senior Assistant

Deke Brackett and Bill Barnes have been coaching associates for a long time. This year marks Brackett's fifth as Barnes' senior assistant. It is also their 14th together at UCLA, preceded by four years at Arkansas.

In addition to his staff work as senior assistant, Brackett is responsible for coaching the defensive secondary and polishing UCLA's punting game.

Brackett joined the UCLA staff following the 1949 season. At Arkansas, he was head baseball coach in addition to serving as backfield coach.

A graduate of Tennessee, Brackett quarterbacked the "Vols" in 1931-32-33. He received honorable mention on Grantland Rice's All-American team each year. Tennessee was undefeated in '31 and '32. Brackett also served as student body president his senior year.

After being graduated in 1934, he served as assistant coach at Tennessee (1935-36), the Citadel (1937-38), and Hampden-Sydney College (1939-40) before joining the Navy in 1942. He was separated from the service in 1945 with the rank of lieutenant commander, and joined the Arkansas staff.

Deke is wed to the former Hazel Bowman and they have two children, Herbert, Jr., 22, a senior at UCLA, and Sallye, 15.

JOHN L. "JOHNNY" JOHNSON—(UCLA '47)
Assistant

Johnny Johnson, in his sixth year with the varsity coaching staff, is again in charge of the defensive secondary. For eight seasons (1950-57), he was head UCLA freshman coach.

His 1955 squad is the only undefeated-untied freshman team in UCLA history. That year, the Brubabes defeated Stanford's frosh for the first time in 18 years. The Indians had started their win-streak in 1939 when Johnson was captain of the UCLA frosh squad.

Following four years of Naval Air Corps service (1942-46), Johnson returned to UCLA, where he was a fullback on the 1946 Bruin team which won the PCC title but lost to Illinois in the 1947 Rose Bowl game.

SAM BOGHOSIAN—(UCLA '56)
Assistant

Sam Boghosian, now in his seventh year with the Bruin coaching staff, is the head line coach. He joined the varsity coaching crew after two years (1955-56) as assistant frosh coach.

While a junior on the UCLA varsity squad, Boghosian started at left guard in the 1954 Rose Bowl game. He topped his collegiate career as a senior by winning All-Coast honors on the Bruins' undefeated-untied national championship team in 1954. He also was a member of the West team in the 1954 East-West Shrine classic.

Boghosian is married to the former Judy Busch and they have a son, John James, 2.

ROBERT L. "BOB" BERGDAHL—(UCLA '57)
Assistant

Bob Bergdahl, now in his fifth season on the varsity staff after serving one year as head frosh coach in 1958, has been named to work with the Bruins' offensive running backs. He'll also head up the scouting staff.

A blocking back (quarterback) on the 1954-55-56 UCLA squad, Bergdahl played in the 1956 Rose Bowl game against Michigan State. In his senior year, he was named recipient of the N. N. Sugarman award for "best spirit and scholarship" and to the All-Coast honorable mention team.

Bergdahl is the son of Len Bergdahl, 1930-31-32 UCLA quarterback. He's married to the former Judy Busch and they have a daughter, Jill, 5½, and a son, Bobby, 3½.

DANIEL E. "DAN" PETERSON—(UCLA '58)
Assistant

Dan Peterson, starting his sixth season with the varsity coaching staff, will work with the UCLA offensive and defensive interior lines.

Peterson played for the Bruin varsity in 1955-56-57 as a center and linebacker. His senior year, he was named to the All-Coast honorable mention squad and received the Los Angeles Bruin Club trophy as the "most outstanding senior." He was also a three-letter man on the Bruin rugby squad.

A twin brother, Dave, played blocking back at UCLA for three years, ending his career in 1958.

JOHN W. "JOHNNY" HERMANN—(UCLA '56)
Assistant

Johnny Hermann is beginning his first year as a full-time varsity assistant after serving four seasons as head freshman coach at UCLA. He has been placed in charge of all phases of the Bruin passing game, including quarterbacks and receivers.

His four-year freshman coaching record was 12 wins, seven losses and two ties.

Hermann was a member of UCLA's 1953-54-55 championship squads. As a senior in 1956, he started at end for Bruins in the Rose Bowl game against Michigan State. Two years before, playing wingback, he also appeared in the New Year's Day game against Michigan State.

Following graduation, Hermann played one year of professional football as a defensive halfback with the Baltimore Colts of the NFL. He joined the UCLA coaching staff in 1959.

LEW STUECK—(UCLA '57)
Head Freshman Coach

Lew Stueck is beginning his first year as head frosh coach after five years at Los Angeles' Loyola High.

His overall Loyola coaching record of 33-12-3 was topped by his 1962 team which won its league title and the California Interscholastic Federation, Southern Section, large schools championship with a spotless 13-0-0 record. In 1961, his team won the league crown with a 9-2-0 mark.

Stueck was graduated from UCLA in 1957. He played frosh football for Washington State and one year of varsity competition before transferring to the Bruin campus.

He's married to the former Donna Friese and they have three daughters, Julie, 5, Monica, 3, and Kristina, 1.

Widest margin of victory for UCLA: 14 points (20-6 in 1961)

Widest margin of victory for Pittsburgh: 21 points (27-6 in 1958)

Pitt will come into this season's opener with a backfield that definitely ranks among the best in the nation. A couple of All-East returnees with All-America potential, left half Paul Martha, 180, and fullback Rick Leeson, 195, top 28 returning vets.

Martha is one of the swiftest backs in the East and is always a breakaway threat. He gave the Bruins fits last season by netting 107 yards on 20 carries, including a 6-yd. end sweep for Pitt's TD. He also caught two passes for 25 yards. Plus, this former T-QB is always a passing threat.

Leeson paced Pitt in ground gaining last year with 481 yards on 104 carries for a 4.6 average. This power runner needs only 67 yards to become the first Pitt fullback to gain over 1,000 yards since the great Marshall Goldberg in 1936-37-38.

But John Michelosen is hoping that 1963 is the year of the sophomore at Pitt. If it is, look out! Three sensational soph backs—Kenny Lucas (QB), 175, and Eric Crabtree (RH), 180, and Dale Stewart (LH), 200—could move the Panthers back into the winner's circle after 3-7 and 5-5 seasons in 1961 and '62, respectively, Lucas, on the basis of spring drills, is the most spectacular of the three. If the name sounds familiar, don't be surprised, because the young man is the brother of the former Penn State All-America QB, Richie Lucas.

Bill Kaliden, the former Pitt QB who now coaches the Panther frosh, is especially high on Lucas. "Right now he's as good a passer as Richie," Kaliden opines. "But we have to work on his running. For a soph he has wonderful poise and doesn't panic when he's in the pocket."

Lucas could be No. 1 at QB, but he'll have to beat out Fred Mazurek, 185, an excellent running junior. They figure to adequately replace Jim Traficant, a starter for two years.

Pitt has a fine 1-2 punch at full with senior John Telesky, 210, returning to back up Leeson. He averaged 3.4 yards per carry last year. Plus, they have seniors Peter Billey, 170, an excellent punter, and Bob Roeder, 185, backing up Martha and Stewart at left half; and another pair of vets to push Crabtree at right half in John Ozimek, 185, and Bill Bodle, 192.

Up front, the Panthers also appear to have solid manpower, including a standout at end in senior Al Grigaliunas, 197, who was second in pass receiving to Martha last year. Michelosen has moved a star senior tackle, Ed Adamchik, 230, to guard to compensate for the loss of three standouts, Ralph Conrad, Tom Brown and John Draksler.

UCLA all-time record against Penn State: First meeting

For the second straight week, the Bruins take on the best in the East. Following the Pitt opener, they'll be facing Penn State, winners of the Lambert Trophy, symbolic of Eastern football supremacy, for past two years. This is the Bruins' first meeting with the Nittany Lions, a team that boasts the magnificent record of 24 straight winning pigskin seasons, 13 of them under their present boss, Rip Engle.

Engle has 19 returning vets, 13 from his first two 1962 units. Here is his impressive starting lineup in both experience and overall size:

Returning starter Dick Anderson, 215, and second string Bill Bowes, 205, at ends; All-America candidate Harrison Rosdahl, 235, an All-East guard last year, and starter Terry Monaghan, 235, at tackles; second string Glenn Ressler, 226, and second string Bernie Sabol, 195 (how did this normal-sized fellow get in here??) at guards; second string and Captain Ralph Baker, 215, at center; starter Pete Liske, an All-East selection, 195, at QB; second string Junior Powell, 165, and non-letterman Gary Klingensmith, 185, at halves; and defensive starter Ed Suckrath, 195, at full.

Liske is rated a brilliant all-around QB with All-America potential. Last year, he set new Penn State season records in passing yardage—gaining 1,037 yards by completing 91 of 162 tosses for 12 TD's—and in total offense, 255 on 69 carries plus his passing for 1,292 total yards. His No. 1 target, halfback Powell, is back—and he merely flagged down 32 aerials in all last season, only one short of the Penn State school record.

And there are no less than three talented vets ready to spell Liske. They are Don Caum and Ron Coates, who backed him up in fine style last season, and a converted 1961 halfback, Gary Wydham, who sat out last year with a knee injury. Liske and Coates are fine passers; Wydham and Caum, dangerous runners.

Engle's biggest job is to replace his three top runners last year, but it is hoped that Bud Yost, 202, a converted 1962 end, will come through at full along with letterman Frank Hershey and non-vet Klingensmith at halves. Plus, speedster Powell not only catches passes but also is a running threat. Liske & Co. at QB also can hurt you on roll-outs.

Defensively, the Lions loom tough with Rosdahl, a prime All-America candidate, and Baker probably rating as the team's best interior linemen.

How's this for an understatement: Penn State figures to be a pretty tough newcomer on the Bruins' schedule—and, remember, this new East-West rivalry will continue on a home-and-home basis through 1966.

UCLA all-time record against Stanford: W-15, L-17, T-1

Widest margin of victory for UCLA: 72 points (72-0 in 1954)

Widest margin of victory for Stanford: 82 points (82-0 in 1925)

Coach John Ralston will field his first Stanford team this fall and if early indications can be used as a barometer, it will be a squad that will do more running than the Indians have done in the past few years. Altogether, the new Tribe boss, who comes to Stanford following a mighty successful coaching career at Utah State, has 26 lettermen around which to form his squad and expects help from some fine sophomore talent.

It goes without saying that Ralston would especially like to beat UCLA in his first conference start of the season.

The line, anchored by center Marv Harris, should again be the Indians' strong point and one of the biggest and best forward walls in the country. Harris, 224, an All-AAWU and All-Coast first team guard last fall, successfully switched to his new role during the spring and impressed many veteran observers. Ralston, who has coached some outstanding linemen in the past, considers the hard-nosed Harris capable of playing with the best of them.

Flanking Harris at the guard spots will be lettermen Frank Dubofsky, 225, and Jack Chapple, 222, and back at tackle are veterans Al Hildebrand, 236, andl Bob Nichols, 240. The ends are led by vets Frank Patitucci, 213, and Bob Howard, 203, both of whom are excellent defenders as well as pass catchers. They led the '62 Tribe in receptions with Patitucci catching 22 and Howard 20.

All three of last year's quarterbacks return, but it looks now that two of them will be doing most of their playing at halfback this fall. Last year's regular Steve Thurlow and junior Dick Ragsdale were shifted to halfback during spring drills with senior Clark Weaver, the hero of Stanford's 20-13 win over California, holding down the starting QB role. Weaver completed 38 of 80 throws last year for an impressive .475%, 416 yards and three TD's.

The Indians' one big loss is that of All-Coast fullback Ed Cummings by graduation. One of the outstanding defensive linebackers in college football, Cummings had topped the team in defensive credits for two straight years, and, in addition, lost only one yard offensively during his Stanford career. His spot will be taken either by lettermen Ken Babajian or Tony DeLellis, junior Frank Bunch or soph Pete Middlekauff.

UCLA all-time record against Syracuse: W-0, L-2, T-0

Widest margin of victory for Syracuse: 28 points (36-8 in 1959)

Syracuse looms as one of the best teams in the nation. Ben Schwartzwalder, the veteran coach who is in his 15th campaign at the Orange helm, has a good deal more experience than a year ago, a better situation at quarterback, and a squad that has proven hitting ability and impressive size.

The top returnees are fullback Jim Nance, quarterback Walley Mahle, end Dick Bowman and guard Jim Mazurek. All were starters last year. A fifth starter—John Paglio, 235, who was moved from tackle to guard following spring practice—also returns. In all, Mr. S. has 25 lettermen back.

Nance is a potential All-American. As a soph last year, this 220 pounder led the team in rushing with 417 yards and a 5.0 average. He netted 82 big yards on 16 carries for a 5.13 average in Syracuse's 12-7 victory over UCLA last fall. Big Jim also is the NCAA and Eastern heavyweight wrestling champion.

Mahle, 6-3, 195, took over at QB after two losing games last season. Syracuse was 5-3 with Walley at the controls. He has fine speed and is a proven runner—and his passing is expected to be greatly improved. As a soph last year, he completed 33 of 71 aerials for 46%, 455 yards and 3 TD's. He was the team's No. 3 runner with 303 yards on 87 carries for a 3.5 average. He led the team in scoring with 40 points, including six TD's and four conversions.

Mahle's understudy, junior Rich King, 185, also is back. Two rookie QB's—Hal Rooney, 190, and Ted Holman, 170—flashed plenty of promise last spring.

Up front, Bowman is a 225-lb. senior end with all-around ability. He's been shifted from the right to the left flank. Mazurek is a 235-lb. senior who is a fixture

Among the rookies, Charlie Brown and Ron Oyer, a pair of 190 pounders, have been impressive. Either man could wind up as a starter at right half.

UCLA all-time record against Notre Dame: First meeting

A new head coach is in charge at Notre Dame—Hugh Devore replaced Joe Kuharich on Mar. 13, 1963—but there are a few familiar faces, as 25 monogram winners return from the '62 campaign.

Also, Devore himself is hardly a stranger, as he has been the Fighting Irish frosh coach for the past five years. In addition, in 1945, he served a previous season as head coach at ND, and, in 1933, he co-captained the Irish from an end position.

The Irish, always noted for their spirit and hustle, figure to be especially steamed up this fall to get their popular new headman off to a winning start. Devore plans to employ a Flanker-T attack, featuring two running backs, a flanker back, and a tight end and a wide end.

ND's three top rushers, all starters, are back, including junior Don Hogan, 185, who averaged 5.0 yards a crack on 90 carries from his RH spot last year; junior Joe Farrell, 200, a hard-running full with a 4.0 average; and junior Ron Bliey, 190, who averaged 3.0 yards per try at LH. Hogan suffered injuries in an auto accident last December but should be ready to go this fall.

The Irish appear loaded at end with six returning vets, including an All-America candidate in senior Jim Kelly, 205, at the split end spot. Last year, Kelly set two new ND pass receiving records, 11 receptions in one game and 41 catches for the season.

Another hot "All" prospect is Captain and senior Bob Lehmann, 210, at guard. He and junior Jim Carroll, 205, are returning starters with three other vets back. The tackle situation also looks solid with five lettermen returning, including three seniors—George Bednar, 235; Nick Etten, 220, and Dave Humenik, 235—all of whom say first-string action last year.

Quarterback may be Devore's biggest problem. He has only one veteran back here, senior Frank Budka, 190, who played mostly on defense last year behind the flashy Daryle Lamonica, now graduated. However, there are several promising QB candidates, including junior John Huarte, 180, and senior Denis Szot, 185, both rated good passers. Another to watch is senior Bill Pfeiffer, 196, who lettered as a defensive back last year but was a talented QB as a freshman and in high school.

Worth noting: Notre Dame battles three AAWU foes on successive Saturdays—USC Oct. 12, UCLA Oct. 19 and Stanford Oct. 26!

Illinois is on the move after two losing seasons and figures to field a winning team this fall. At the end of the 1961 season, Coach Pete Elliott outlined a master plan for Illinois' return to football respectability. He called for a "couple of victories" in 1962, a winning team in '63 and a Big Ten title contender in '64. Thus far, the Illini appear to be right on schedule.

Says Elliott: "We have the experience and confidence which our last two teams have lacked. Our ball club came along fast last year, and won two of final four games against strong opposition."

Nucleus for this year's club is provided by 27 returning lettermen, foremost of whom is All-America center and linebacking candidate Dick Butkus, 234-lb. junior, destined to become one of Illinois' all-time gridiron greats. Other top candidates for "All" recognition include senior quarterback Mike Taliaferro, 190, a fine passer and signal caller; junior tackle Archie Sutton, 6-4, 260, who has been moved from guard; and senior end Bill Pasko, 201, a strong defensive player who has been hampered by injuries in previous years.

Eight of the lettermen were regulars on the 1962 club. Elliott lost only five players from his top units.

The other first-string returnees are: junior end Rich Callaghan, 174; senior tackle Bob Easter, 218; senior guard Dick Deller, 209; senior halfback Jim Warren, 166; and senior fullback Dave Pike, 203. Warren was the team's No. 2 receiver last year with 18 catches.

Besides 13 other returning squad members, additional help will be provided by an exceptional group of incoming sophs. Elliott expects 12 to 14 to break into the top three units. Soph half Sam Price, a muscular 205-lb. speed merchant, and scatback Dick Kee, 165, are rated high.

Taliaferro looms as one of the country's finest passers. Last year, he completed 80 passes for 1,139 yards and 5 TD's. His yardage total is most by an Illini passer since Tommy O'Connell threw for 1,761 in '52.

Look for California to field an improved football team this fall, a predominantly junior team, a team which could beat any opponent on a given day with the sensational Craig Morton at the QB controls

He was one of the AAWU's great sophs last year; in fact, he was named on the all-conference second team even though he played in only the last five games after missing the first five because of a knee injury. In just half a season, this 6-4, 210-lb giant completed 69 of 126 passes for 548%, 905 yards and 9 TD's. He gave UCLA fits as he hit on 18 of 32 tosses in last year's 26-16 thriller over the Bears, including a 23-yd. TD toss and a 5-yd. keeper for another tally.

To better exploit Morton's passing prowess, Coach Marv Levy will employ the Flanker-T this season. And Morton will be a running threat, too, with a sound knee. Everything he did last year was on a gimpy leg.

Expected to give Cal running strength will be junior halfback Tom Blanchfield, 185, who was the team's No. 2 rusher last year with a 3.69 average; fullback Rudy Carvajal, 175, moved from halfback; and flashy soph halfback Jerry Mosher, 180. Carvajal made the switch to full in impressive style last spring, despite lack of size.

Defensively, the Bears figure to be sounder and tougher all the way around. A hard-nosed former Bruin named John Nikcevich is the new coach in charge of the Cal defense.

Standouts up front include junior guard Ron Calegari, 6-3, 230, who is big, fast and mobile; senior tackle and Captain Jim Anderson, 215; and senior end Larry Lowell, 215. The line figures to be both faster and deeper than last year.

Levy is especially counting on such talented sophs as Mosher, tackles Roger Foster, 235, John Rusev, 230, and end Joe Rapisarda, 195, to come through in their first year of varsity ball. In fact, Mosher and Foster are tabbed as starters.

Ben Martin, the astute AFA coach, evaluates his 1963 Falcons in the following optimistic fashion:

"Looking at our team on the surface, I would have to say that we will be an improved team in 1963. We lost very few key players via graduation, and there are several boys coming up from the frosh team of last year who have demonstrated considerable potential as varsity football players."

Martin adds, "We will be about the same in the size and speed department as last year, but with 27 returning lettermen, we will definitely be more experienced than ever before."

Outstanding returnees include senior Terry Isaacson, 178, at quarterback; junior Larry Tollstam, 206, at full; and junior John Poster, 6-3, 197, at end.

Isaacson, the team's leading rusher as a soph halfback, was moved to QB last year and did a great job. He led the Falcons in passing by hitting on 52 of 120 throws for .433%, 591 yards and 3 TD's. He also was the team's No. 2 rusher with a 3.31 average. He's also a top punter with a 38.65 average. Here is a Falcon with All-America potential.

Tollstam is a bruising runner with deceptive speed. He led the team in rushing last year with a nifty 4.70 average. Puster is the fastest man on the squad and looms as a talented two-way performer.

Certain to hold down the halkback spots in sound style are veterans Darryl Bloodworth, a 162-lb. senior, and Dick Czarnota, a 204-lb. junior. Both are dangerous runners and pass receivers.

Sophomores to watch include ends Fritz Greenlee, 6-3, 201, one of the team's fastest men with great hands; end Jim Greth, 6-2, 196, who is big, strong and rugged; guard Mike Lanagan, 201, who needs only experience to be a standout; halfback Ken Jaggers, 160, an all-around performer with good speed, moves and savvy; and quarterback Jim Graham, 170, who impressed as the No. 1 QB last spring in the absence of Isaacson.

Washington may have lost heavily from its powerful team of last year, but the Huskies still loom as a club to be reckoned with in the AAWU race. After all, winning has become a Huskie habit under the talented tutelage of Jim Owens, who has posted the following impressive records for the past four years: 10-1-0 in '59, 10-1-0 in '60, 5-4-1 in '61 and 7-2-1 last year.

Among the 14 returning vets is one of the most talked-about players in the nation. That would be All-Coast fullback Junior Coffey, 205, who has crashing power, good speed and is solid on defense. As a soph last year, he led the AAWU in ground gaining with 581 net yards on 98 carries for a 5.3 average and 8 TD's. Here is a top All-America nominee for '63.

Coffey was at his blazing best as the Huskies romped to a 30-0 victory over the Bruins last year. He galloped for 112 yards on 14 carries for an 8.0 average and 2 TD's.

Other key returnees include a pair of great guards, All-Coast Rick Redman, 210, and Rick Sortun, 205. Redman was a super soph last year and figures to be even better this fall. Also a fine punter, he averaged 38.3 yards a kick. Sortun, a senior, is rated in the same class as Redman by Coach Owens.

Still another top gridder is Mike Briggs, 215, at tackle. As a junior last year, he won All-AAWU second team honors. He spearheads a tackle corps of such tried-and-true campaigners as senior Jake Kupp, 205; junior Joe Ryan, 216; and the junior Knoll twins, Joe, 230, and Jerry, 225.

At the important T-QB spot the Huskies boast a solid 1-2 punch in senior Bill Siler, 170, and junior Bill Douglas, 175. A superb team leader, Siler has quick moves and deceptive speed as a runner. While not a great passer, he throws often enough and accurately enough to keep the opposition edgy. Last year, Siler led the team in passing by completing 15 of 27 for .556%, 294 yards and 3 TD's.

Douglas came to the fore as a '62 soph. He combines good throwing with solid running and superb intelligence. Last year, he hit on 11 of 27 aerials for .407%, 146 yards and no TD's. And right behind Messrs. Siler and Douglas come two classy sophs—Corky Terry, 170, and Al Libke, 187—both of whom stood out boldly last spring. Libke, incidentally, stands 6-5.

USC's defending national champions figure to be THE team to beat on both a conference and national level. The Trojans have 26 returning lettermen, including eight Rose Bowl starters, from their undefeated powerhouse of '62.

Heading the returnee list, of course, are USC's famed "B-Boys," including All-America end Hal Bedsole, 6-5, 213; All-America guard Damon Bame, 187; All-AAWU quarterback Pete Beathard, 191; and All-AAWU halfback Willie Brown, 172.

Bedsole already claims every pass-receiving record in the USC book. Last year, he caught 33 aerials for 827 yards and 11 TD's. 'Nuff said. He's equally talented on defense. Bame was the key to USC's defensive strength and again figures to be one of the country's great linebacking specialists.

Beathard, who pitched a Rose Bowl record of four TD passes in the Trojans' 42-37 spine-tingler over Wisconsin, looms as the No. 1 All-America QB candidate. Last season, he completed 54 of 107 throws for .50%, 949 yards and 10 TD's. He's also a dangerous runner.

Many experts claim that Brown is the most underrated halfback in the nation. Last season, he came up with the key plays, including an unbelievable goal-line catch against UCLA to set the stage for winning score. This speedster led the team in rushing—574 net yards on 88 carries for a nifty 6.6 average—and was second only to Bedsole in receiving with 20 catches.

Besides the "B-Boys," the four other Rose Bowl starters back are end John Brownwood, 205; tackle Gary Kirner, 200; and guards Pete Lubisich, 205, and Bill Fisk, 203.

Gone are starters Marv Marinovich at tackle, Ken Del Conte at right half and Ben Wilson at full. All standouts, of course, but adequate replacements appear at hand. Bob Svihus, 215, a converted guard, and soph Chuck Arrobio, 225, will move in for Marinovich. A bruising runner, junior Ron Heller and soph sensation Mike Garrett should carry on for Del Conte. A trio of capable lettermen—Ernie Pye, Rich McMahon and Ernie Jones—as well as a hard-hitting JV candidate, 210-lb. Bob Moss, will be battling for Wilson's job.

This 6-5, 215-lb. giant looks ready for a banner senior campaign and should put in a strong bid for "All" honors. Last year, he was named on UPI All-Coast third team and won honorable mention on AP All-Coast and AP and UPI All-American. Once rated primarily a defensive star, he came into his own as a fine pass catcher last year. After catching only one pass for 11 yards in '61, he tied with All-American halfback Kermit Alexander as the team's No. 1 receiver last season with 12 for 229 yards and one TD. Started 9 games last year—and only a serious infected tooth kept him out of action in the other game. Last year, he played 40 or more minutes in eight of the nine games he played, topped by 51 against Syracuse. Also intercepted one pass for 28 yards and returned a kickoff for 11 yards last year. Later in the season, against the Air Force Academy, he kicked the longest field goal in UCLA history, a 48-yarder. A tremendously devoted and spirited athlete, Zeno won the starting quarterback job in the second game of his collegiate career. Missed all last season because of knee injury which was operated on in off-season. Improved steadily as 1963 Spring practice progressed and knee is expected to be in top shape this fall. Made his mark as the top sophomore ground-gainer in UCLA history in 1961, finishing as the No. 1 AAWU and UCLA yardage leader with 696 yards in 107 regular-season carries for a 6.52 average to surpass the previous Bruin soph record of 597 yards by Paul Cameron in 1951. He added only 7 yards on 5 carries in 1962 Rose Bowl game. Was also runner-up to teammate Bob Smith in both conference and Bruin total offense and scoring. Won All-AAWU, AP and UPI All-Coast second team honors in 1961 and also received AP All-America honorable mention. Was co-recipient of UCLA's "Rookie-of-the-Year" award. Pre-Dental major. Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

PAUL CAMPBELL HORGAN — Sophomore; frosh numeral winner as starting left halfback last year. Moved to fullback in 1963 Spring practice and impressed with his running and linebacking. Started slow as a frosh last year, but showed his running talent against USC Frosh when he rambled for 75 net yards on 18 carries for a 4.16 average and a TD, a 11-yd. slant off guard. Lettered three years in football under Coach Lew Stueck, now the UCLA head coach, at Loyola Hi, Los Angeles. Was the All-CIF "Player-of-the-Year" in 1961. As a single wing tailback at Loyola that year, he posted the following impressive statistics: carried ball 292 times for 1,451 yards, a 4.97 average and 18 TD's; passed for 552 more yards for a mighty 2,003 yards in total offense in 11 games fo ran average of 182 yards per game! He passed for 7 TD's. Served as football co-captain and student body secretary. Political Science major.

WARREN EARL JACKSON—Junior; one-year letterman, played 208 minutes at fullback last year. Without benefit of Spring practice last year, he stepped in and did a fine job as a soph full. Split playing time and starting honors with senior Mitch Dimkich. Only soph to play more was tackle Randy Schwartz with 211 minutes. Started 5 games, against Stanford, Air Force Academy, Washington, Utah and Syracuse. A power runner, he also is a fine defensive performer. Needs to become more consistent in his play, however. Was the team's No. 2 rusher last year with 275 net yards on 58 carries for a 4.75 average and 1 TD. His big games, surprisingly enough, came in opening games against Ohio State and Colorado State, running for 70 yards on 14 carries for a 5.0 average against Buckeyes and 9 for 65 and a 7.22 average and 1 TD against Rams. Transferred to UCLA in September, 1962, from Santa Ana (Calif.) Junior College where he lettered one year in football and won All-Eastern Conference honors as a linebacker. Lettered three years in football under Coach Lester McKnight at Santa Ana Hi; also lettered in track. Won All-Southern California CIF second team grid honors two years running in 1959 and '60. Also served as commissioner of athletics. Psychology major.

DON CARL ROJAS—Sophomore; non-playing "Redshirt" in 1961; 1960 frosh numeral winner as starting fullback. Broke leg early in practice last fall and had to sit season out. A good athlete, he has the ability to help. Rated a fine punter. Lettered three years in football under Coach Robin Rush at Bullard Hi, Fresno, Calif.; also lettered in basketball, baseball and wrestling. Won All-Fresno City grid honors two years running in 1958 and '59. Aso served as football, basketball and baseball captain. Economics major. Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity.

MICHAEL WAYNE (MIKE) TAYLOR — Sophomore; non-playing "Redshirt" last year. Transferred to UCLA in September, 1962, from Compton (Calif.) Junior College where he lettered one year in football and won All-Western States Conference honorable mention. This 210 pounder has shown promise as a runner but must improve defensively. Lettered four years in football under Coach Chester Jordan at Lincoln Hi, Fort Smith, Ark.; also lettered in basketball and track. Served as football captain two years running in 1959 and '60. Also was Senior Class president. Education major.

HISTORY OF UCLA

ROYCE HALL

UCLA was founded at just the right place at just the right time —Los Angeles in 1919, at the beginning of an era of explosive growth.

Business, industry and government had begun to feel the need for men and women with high-quality university educations, and the University of California, Southern Branch (as UCLA was then called) took up the challenge.

So vigorously did it take up the challenge that less than five years after its founding, the new school began to feel cramped in its tiny Vermont Avenue campus.

A new campus was chosen among the lonely bean fields and live oaks in Westwood at the foot of the Santa Monica Mountains and within sight of the Pacific Ocean. By 1927 mule teams and tractors were busy leveling the ground. Today UCLA's beautifully landscaped 411-acre campus is a busy center of the arts, study, research and extracurricular student activities. It is also a beehive of construction.

Despite high entrance requirements (which only about 12.5 per cent of high school graduates can meet), its enrollment has mushroomed to more than 20,000 students—making it one of the top 10 in the nation in size of enrollment.

UCLA is the second largest campus in point of enrollment among the nine campuses of the state university, headed by President Clark Kerr.

Dr. Franklin David Murphy, 47, is Chancellor at UCLA. He heads a teaching and research staff of 2,638 and a full-time non-teaching staff of 2,813.

There are now 69 instructional departments, 13 schools and colleges, the Graduate Division, and a number of bureaus and research institutions.

UCLA is the fastest-growing major university in the United States. Since the end of World War II a $150,000,000 building program has been under way, to meet the ever-increasing enrollment. The number of buildings has more than doubled since the end of the war and a campus to accommodate 27,500 students by 1967 is being planned.

The library at UCLA, with its 17 branches contains 1,750,000 volumes, making it the largest reesarch library in the Southwest.

UCLA ranks among the top ten universities in the nation in the quality of its graduate offerings.

In contrast to older American universities which have been building for a century or more, UCLA erected its physical plant during a single generation. Its postwar buildings are constructed of the same material and share the same architectural feelings as the older buildings.

While physical expansion is the most astonishing single facet about the Los Angeles campus, the University has also grown rapidly and vigorously in instruction and research—helping the state-wide University of California to maintain its place as one of the "Big Five" in American education, along with Harvard, Yale, Columbia and Chicago.

DR. FRANKLIN D. MURPHY
UCLA Chancellor

DR. MURPHY

Although he has been chancellor at UCLA only a little more than three years, Dr. Franklin D. Murphy has already firmly established himself in the Los Angeles community as an energetic doer as well as a thinker and planner.

In addition to discharging his obligations as head of a ranking educational institution, he has found time to participate in many community activities, serving, for example, on the board of the projected Los Angeles Art Museum and as a director of the California Museum of Science and Industry.

At 47, Chancellor Murphy has already had an extensive administrative career in education, having spent three years as Dean of Kansas University's School of Medicine and eight as KU's Chancellor before coming to UCLA in 1960.

Important elements in Chancellor Murphy's background are these:

1. He is a medical man. His father was one of the founders of the University of Kansas School of Medicine, and his brother is on the staff of Cornell Medical School. Chancellor Murphy took his medical training at the University of Pennsylvania. During World War II he served in the U.S. Army Medical Corps doing research work on malaria.

2. He has a broad international background. This includes the chairmanship of the United States Advisory Commission on Educational Exchange of the Department of State, the Ford Foundation Committee on University and World Affairs, and the chairmanship of the Execuaive Committee of the Council on Higher Education in the American Republics.

3. He has been sympathetic toward enlightened business and industry, serving on the Board of Trustees of such enterprises as Hallmark Cards, Inc , and the First National Bank of Kansas City.

4. He has been a member of such educational and philanthropic boards as the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and the Menninger Foundation.

The chancellor's interests in sports dates back to the days when he was an all-interscholastic quarterback in Kansas City. He is a frequent spectator at UCLA football games and an ardent fan of all kinds of sports.

Chancellor Murphy is married to the former Judith Joyce Harris, of Kansas City and graduate of Vassar; and they have four children, Judith Joyce, 20; Martha Alice, 19, Carolyn Louise, 14, and Franklin Lee, 12.

DR. BRADFORD A. BOOTH

Faculty Athletic Representative

DR. BOOTH

Dr. Bradford Booth is now in his second stint as UCLA's faculty athletic representative. He previously served for three years, 1958-59-60, and then was re-appointed to this position by Chancellor Franklin D. Murphy last year. Dr. Thomas L. Jacobs held the post in 1961.

In the 1962 spring meeting of the Athletic Assn. of Western Universities (AAWU), Dr. Booth was elected conference president and served during the past academic year.

A professor of English and an enthusiastic supporter of intercollegiate athletics, Dr. Booth claims an attendance record of missing only one home football game in the 27 years he's been at UCLA. "And I wouldn't have missed that game if I hadn't been out of state," he says.

Dr. Booth did his undergraduate work at Allegheny College in Meadville, Pa., graduating in 1930. He received his M.A. and Ph.D. from Harvard University in 1932 and 1935 and then accepted a Dexter Fellowship from Harvard for special research at Oxford and the British Museum.

Dr. Booth is the author of many books in the field of Victorian literature, including "Anthony Trollope: Aspects of His Life and Art." He is editor of the scholarly journal, "Nineteenth-Century Fiction" and has just completed a five-volume edition of "The Letters of Robert Louis Stevenson," which was supported by a 1961 Guggenheim Fellowship.

Dr. Booth's first teaching job was at University of Tennessee where he taught English for one year before coming to UCLA in 1936.

Though he enjoys watching all Bruin sports, he is an active participant in tennis and golf. He holds the distinction of being the only male in his family being happily surrounded by his wife, Josephine, and his three daughters, Barbara, 21, Celia, 18, and Carol, 13. Barbara is a junior at University of Washington; Celia, a sophomore at UCLA.

J. D. MORGAN (UCLA '41)
Director of Athletics

J. D. MORGAN

J. D. (his initials are his only first name) Morgan stepped into the important position of UCLA's director of athletics on July 1, 1963. He succeeded Wilbur Johns, who retired as of that date after 16 years as the Bruin athletic boss.

Morgan will continue to coach the Bruin tennis teams, a job he has held down with great success since 1951. He has turned out 13 straight winning teams, 10 of which were championship teams and six of which went on to NCAA team titles in 1952-53-54-56-60-61.

J. D. is well qualified for his new responsibilities:

- As a successful coach, he knows the problems facing all coaches.
- As the equally successful associate business manager of the University for the past eight years, he has the business acumen to handle the financial side of the job of fielding teams in 18 active sports, including in alphabetical order: baseball, basketball, crew, cricket, cross country, fencing, football, golf, gymnastics, rifle, rugby, soccer, swimming, tennis, track, volleyball, water polo and wrestling.
- As an enthusiastic alumnus, he knows and appreciates the traditions of UCLA, a university which combines a high academic standing with a strong athletic program.

Morgan is a leader in collegiate tennis nationally. He's currently serving as chairman of the NCAA Tennis Tournament Committee. He was one of the founders of the National Collegiate Tennis Coaches Assn. eight years ago and served as its president for the first four years. He's now on its executive committee.

Prior to moving into the University business office, J. D. served in a double capacity as both assistant Bruin tennis coach and accountant for the Associated Students of UCLA from 1946 through '50.

Morgan earned four tennis letters (1938-41) at UCLA and was captain and No. 1 player in his senior year. J. D. prepped at Cordell, Okla., High where he was a four-sport athlete, lettering in football, basketball, baseball and tennis. In tennis, he won All-State prep honors and was an all-league selection in both baseball and football. Incidentally, a back injury kept him from playing football for the Bruins.

Morgan graduated from UCLA's School of Business Administration in 1941. During World War II he commanded a Navy torpedo boat.

He's wed to the former Cynthia Gray Crane. They have a son, Kevin, 9 and a daughter, Pamela, 2½. The Morgans reside in Northridge in San Fernando Valley.
